

Prof. Kwok Pan Felix CHUNG

former Legislative Councillor

Prof. Chung graduated from BSC in Quantity Surveying in 1986 in the Robert Gordon University Aberdeen, UK and followed with his MBA degree in Stirling University, Stirling, UK in 1987. He joined his family business in a knitwear factory in late 1988.

In year 2001, with the support from many garment manufacturers, a non-profit making association was formed in the name of the Hong Kong Apparel Society Ltd (HKAS), he was the founder Chairman until 2012 and now being a Hon. Life Chairman.

He was elected as Legislative Councillor in 2012 until 2021. During in the position of a Member of the fifth and sixth Legislative Council of HKSAR (Textiles and Garment Sector), he had a good linkage with business sectors especially in the manufacturing field.

In 2013 he founded the Fashion Industry Development Council (FIDC) which aimed to gather elites of different specialties to promote the interests of the fashion industry in Hong Kong.

In early 2022, he formed Hong Kong Carbon Trading Centre (HKCTC) as the Founder & CEO. HKCTC helps all kinds and sizes of industrial companies in how to reduce the carbon emission in order to help the World's global warming and climate change.

Prof. Chung's other services:

1. Adjunct Professor, The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK)
(Department of Government and Public Administration)
2. Member, Carbon Market Opportunities Working Group of Financial Services Development Council (FSDC)
3. Chairman, Fashion Industry Training Advisory Committee under the Qualifications Framework (QF), Education Bureau of HKSAR
4. Leading Founder, CE100 Hong Kong (潔能 100/零碳 100)
5. Honorary President, Hong Kong Association of Solar Energy Industry
6. Honorary Life Chairman, Hong Kong Apparel Society (HKAS)
7. Hon. General committee, The Chinese Manufacturers' Association of Hong Kong
8. Advisor, New Territories General Chamber of Commerce