敬業樂群

Officium et Civitas

校訓

“敬業”旨在人格的培養，對專業知識敬慎以待，包含了現代學術的專業精神與專業道德；“樂群”則強調個人與社會的關係，一方面是個體人格的成長，另方面則提倡群體精神、社會關懷與造福人群。

University Motto

Officium et Civitas is the Latin translation for the motto. Officium captures the rich connotations of the word “業” and denotes a high-minded sense of duty, including high office, with a very positive moral connotation. Civitas refers to both town/city and “union of citizens (commonwealth)”, a spirit embraced by the word “群”.

法律學院院長陳清漢教授、新加坡資深律師致辭全文

尊敬的鄧國楨法官 (終審法院非常任法官)、各位嘉賓、各位畢業生、各位同事：

歡迎蒞臨香港城市大學法律學院 2019 及 2020 年畢業典禮。

很榮幸能與各位在這裡與我們的畢業生一同慶祝如此深具意義、且充滿喜悅的一刻。親愛的同學，今天標誌著你們過去在學業上竭力追求卓越，箇中的努力、投入，不斷超越自己而最終取得的成果。

在這重要的時刻，我想首先向你們摯愛的家人致意。他們一直默默在你身旁，不論你遇到多大的困難，他們都無條件的接納、支持你。沒有他們，就沒有今天的你，而各位今天也就不會在這裡。因此，我請各位畢業生向你的家人、朋友熱烈鼓掌，感謝他們對你無限的關懷、愛護。

我也想在此向鄧國楨法官致謝，感謝他在百忙之中撥冗出席我們的畢業典禮，與我們分享他的人生經驗、鏗鏘之言。

我們也要感謝法律學院的同仁，他們一直致力於激發各位的潛能。難得的是，作為一所出色的法學院，城大法律學院的學者同時亦是優秀的老師，透過他們的指導，啟發了你們，令你們掌握終生學習的人生技能。透過與你們分享對法律的熱誠，我深信他們已在你們的心中種下了公義和道德的種子。

在這類場合，法學院院長一般都會為畢業生給予一點建議。作為律師的我，當然也會按照先例，與你們分享三點建議。

第一，要準備好面對挫折、失望。我可以肯定的告訴你，若你想過有意義的人生，你必定會遇到失望、甚至是失敗 -- 這是不可避免的。只有沒志向的人才不會遇到挫折。當你遇到挫折時，你可以選擇兩條路：你可以感到洩氣、自憐，並選擇放棄。又或者，你可以選擇去了解為何自己不能成功，並重新站起來，勇敢面對。我們所有的失敗當中都有寶貴的教訓。若你能恰當地內化這些功課，它們便能成為你未來取得成功的資源。

第二，即使你立定心志超越自己，請你持守正直、誠實及是非之心。很多人為了取得成功走捷徑，犧牲了這些重要的素質。但是，人一旦失去誠信，就註定走上失敗的路，

甚至名譽掃地。相反，堅守誠信、公平競爭的人才能走得更遠。在人生的旅途中，你必須與人合作，否則你不可能成功。若你是有誠信的人，其他人自然會信任你，願意和你合作。

第三，畢業不是終結，而是人生旅程的另一個新開始。在你漫長的職業生涯中，你必須繼續學習。學習不單包括去了解法律的轉變和發展；這不過是對你們作為律師的最低要求而已。為了繼續緊貼時代的變化，過饒具意義和明確目標的人生，你需要學習認識不同行業，並對新的作事方式、不同的觀點抱持開放的態度。我估計，你會和我一樣，發現很多時候你都需要改變自己固有的看法。因為只有當你準備好付出努力學習新的事物時，才能抓緊新的機遇、邁向成功。

謝謝各位！

Address by Professor TAN Cheng-Han, SC (Singapore), Dean of School of Law

The Honourable Mr Justice Tang, Non-Permanent Judge of the Court of Final Appeal, Honoured Guests, Graduates and Colleagues,

It gives me immense pleasure to welcome all of you to the graduation ceremony for 2019 and 2020 classes of the CityU School of Law.

I feel very honoured to be here as we come together to celebrate this symbolic and joyous moment for our graduates, a moment that epitomizes the years of hard work and commitment, of constantly going beyond your limits, in the pursuit of academic excellence.

On an important occasion like this, we should first pay tribute to your beloved families who have stood by you and shown unfailing acceptance despite the struggles you must doubtless have encountered. Without them you would not be who and where you are today. May I, therefore, ask all the graduates to give a round of applause to your family members.

I would also like to thank the Honourable Justice Tang for so kindly gracing our graduation ceremony despite his busy schedule and also for his words of wisdom that he would share with us.

Let us also honour and thank my colleagues at the School who were committed to bringing out the best in you. I am proud that unusually for a leading law school, faculty at CityU take great pride in teaching. Through their teaching, and more importantly their facilitation of your learning, they have taught you how to learn which is an important life skill. And I am confident that by sharing with you their passion for the law, they have planted the seeds of justice and ethics in good soil.

It is customary on such occasions for Deans of law schools to leave graduates with some advice and as a lawyer I will, of course, follow precedent. I have three pieces of advice I wish to share.

First, expect disappointment and setbacks. Let me assure you that if you wish to lead a meaningful life, you will encounter disappointment and even failure. It is inevitable. Only people who don't try to do worthwhile things will not encounter failure. When you do, there are two paths available to you. You can be discouraged, feel sorry for yourself, and choose not to push the boundaries. Or you can choose to learn from why you did not succeed, pick yourself up, and try again. All our failures contain valuable lessons that, properly internalized, form the bedrock on which future success is built.

Second, even as you push boundaries, stay within what is right, honest and ethical. Many are tempted to do otherwise, thinking that it is a short cut to success. Often it is the path to failure and even disgrace if dishonesty is involved. A reputation for honesty, fair play, and integrity go a long way. In life, collaboration and cooperation are extremely important. It is not possible to succeed without others. If you are a person of integrity, others will trust you and be prepared to work with you.

Third, this is not the end of your learning journey; in many ways it simply marks a new beginning. In the long careers ahead of you, you must continue to learn. This is not just to keep up with changes in the law. That is the minimum expected of you as a lawyer. To continue to be relevant so that you can lead a meaningful and purpose-driven life, you will also have to learn about different industries, be open to new ways of doing things, and always keep an open mind to different perspective. I think you will find, as I have found, that you have to reinvent yourself from time to time. This is because there will be new challenges and opportunities that can only be seized if you are prepared to put in the effort to learn new things.

My colleagues and I are confident that you have what it takes to succeed. We all wish you the very best and look forward to hearing about the wonderful things that we know you will do. As a famous Chinese saying goes, “studying is like sailing against the current; either you keep forging ahead, or you keep falling behind.” And so it is too with life. Graduates of 2019 and 2020, while you are graduating into an ocean of uncertainty, I trust that you will forge ahead to sail through these challenging tides and emerge stronger, more knowledgeable, and more experienced so as to leave your mark on society.

Thank you and I wish you fulfillment and success.

終審法院非常任法官鄧國楨先生 GBM, QC, SC, JP 致辭全文

陳清漢教授、林峰教授、2019 及 2020 年的畢業同學、各位來賓：

能夠獲邀在法律學院畢業典禮上致辭，我感到非常榮幸。今年倍感榮幸，因為今年的畢業禮同時慶賀 2020 年與 2019 年的兩屆畢業生。今天，我們恭賀努力學習而完成學業的畢業生，同時表揚協助他們取得成功的家人、好友和老師。各位絕對有理由在今天感到高興和自豪，我藉此熱烈的祝賀各位。

不過，我們難以忘記帶來這雙重喜慶背後的一連串事件。2019 年的大型示威活動及社會動盪，還有 2020 年的新冠疫情，看來將會在未來繼續纏擾我們。各位新加入或即將加入職場的同學，也許對前景感到茫然。

各位學習的是普通法，也許會因此擔心普通法在未來的前景。不過，《基本法》清楚列明香港的法制可於 1997 年後保持 50 年不變，如今尚餘 27 年。以你現在的年歲來說，27 年可能不算長，但且讓我們先善用這 27 年吧。

我們可對未來有甚麼期望？沒有人可以預視未來。老實說，我也不曉得未來會是怎樣。不過，我不會限制自己想像未來。我知道有些人不喜歡現在目睹的事情，有意離開香港。我謹在此祝福他們。可是，有更多人應會想留下來。

上世紀八十年代，許多人想找尋一處安身立命之所。新加坡當時是熱門的移居地點，我的一位律師好友到了當地工作，事業發展非常成功。不過，假若他留在香港，我深信他會取得同樣的成就。

香港與新加坡有許多相似的地方，但最大的分別在於新加坡是獨立的國家，而香港是一個特別行政區。除此之外，兩地相近之處甚多，例如同為前英國殖民地，同樣承襲普通法，並且同樣具有深厚的中國文化傳統。

新加坡在 55 年前的 1965 年成為獨立國家，而香港成為特別行政區僅 23 年。具有較長體制轉變歷史的新加坡，是否可為香港預示未來？

新加坡毫無疑問是一個滿有活力的國際金融商業中心，其商業法院極受尊崇，並且一如香港般擁有重要的國際仲裁中心。我深信香港將繼續成為充滿活力的國際金融商業

中心，我們的商業法院仍深受尊重，且將繼續成為重要的國際仲裁中心。您應該很高興聽到，簡單來說，香港仍將是律師發展事業的好地方。

部分人也許會說香港的一些法例極為嚴苛。

雖然未必每個人都喜歡或同意每一條法例，但所有人均須遵守法律。部分人或會認為有些法例太寬鬆，而有些法例則太嚴苛。不過，這沒關係。除了例外的情況（但該等例外情況在此並不適用），所有法例均需執行及遵守。因此，我們必須遵照法律的文本及精神生活。

此外，我們該緊記所有新法例必須通過法院的解釋程序，並牢記終審法院反覆闡明「為了令香港居民充分享有憲法所保障的各項基本權利及自由，法院（對於那些受《基本法》保障的權利及自由的條文）應該採納寬鬆的解釋。」<sup>1</sup>

有意留在香港發展事業的各位同學，你會發現，身邊的法官和律師均盡力履行其職責。

請支持他們，他們的成功便是你的成功。

最後，我謹祝願各位順遂、平安！

Address by The Honourable Mr Justice Robert TANG Kwok-ching, GBM, QC, SC, JP,
Non-Permanent Judge of the Court of Final Appeal

Professor Tan, Professor Lin Feng, Graduates of 2019 and 2020, Ladies and Gentlemen,

It is an honour to be asked to speak at a Graduation Ceremony of the Law School. It is a double honour this year because we celebrate the Graduation not only of the Class of 2020 but also the Class of 2019. Today we congratulate the graduates whose hard work have brought them here. Today, we also celebrate the help given by their families, friends and teachers which have made their success possible. All of you have every reason to be happy and proud. My very warm congratulations.

But we cannot overlook the events which have led to this double celebration. The massive protests and unrest in 2019 and the pandemic in 2020 will continue to shape our future. For you who have recently embarked or are about to embark on your careers, the future may seem uncertain.

You are trained in the common law and you may wonder about the future of the common law. We know the Basic Law says that Hong Kong's system of law may continue to be used for 50 years after 1997. There are about 27 years left. At your age, 27 years may not be long enough. But let us make the most of the 27 years first.

What can we expect? No one can see into the future, my honest answer is that I do not know. But that does not stop me from thinking about the future. I know there are some who do not like what they see and want to leave Hong Kong. They have my good wishes. But many more are likely to want to stay. They are our future.

In the 1980s, many people wanted a bolthole somewhere. At that time, Singapore was a popular destination. I have a good friend, a lawyer, who went to work in Singapore and was hugely successful there. I have no doubt that had he stayed in Hong Kong, he would have been equally successful.

Hong Kong and Singapore have much in common. One important difference is that Singapore is a sovereign State and Hong Kong is a Special Administrative Region. Otherwise, we have much in common. Both are former British Colonies. Both have inherited the common law. In both places, Chinese cultural heritage is strong.

Singapore became independent in 1965, 55 years ago. Hong Kong have been a Special Administrative Region for 23 years. Can Singapore's longer history show what may be in store for Hong Kong?

Singapore is by all accounts a thriving international commercial and financial centre. Its commercial courts are held in high esteem. Like Hong Kong, it is an important international arbitration centre. I believe Hong Kong will remain a thriving international commercial and financial centre. Our commercial courts will also continue to be held in high esteem. Hong Kong will remain an important international arbitration centre. You should be happy to hear, in short, Hong Kong should be the very sort of place where lawyers will do well.

Some might say that there are draconian legislations in Hong Kong.

Everyone must live within the law. They might not like or agree with all the law. Some, they might consider to be too lax, some too draconian. It does not matter. With exceptions which do not apply here, laws have to be obeyed and enforced. In doing so, one must have regard to the language as well as the spirit of the law.

We should also remember new legislations have to go through the court's interpretive process. We should remember the Court of Final Appeal has repeatedly said "the courts should give generous interpretation to (fundamental rights and freedoms guaranteed by the Basic Law) – in order to give to Hong Kong residents the full measure of fundamental rights and freedoms so constitutionally guaranteed"<sup>1</sup>

This is the golden thread which runs through our law. These important words should inform the interpretation of any law in Hong Kong.<sup>2</sup>

For those of you who wish to make your career in Hong Kong. You can see that around you, Judges and lawyers are trying to do their best.

Support them, their success will be your success.

It remains for me to wish you good luck, every success and happiness.

2019 畢業生分享

梁艷杉      法律學學士

欣逢畢業盛典，我很榮幸代表 2019 屆畢業生致辭。這是場晚了一年的畢業典禮。畢業讓我們反思自己從求學歷程中獲得甚麼、未來計劃為何。畢業也讓我們學會感恩，向珍視的親友致謝。

親愛的家人，感謝你們相信我們的潛力，並教導我們要盡己所能，成為最好的自己。身為一名國際學生，我要衷心感謝我的家人，讓我離家在這片美麗的異國土地，追求自己的一片天。讓我們一起為摯愛的親人鼓掌，在這個重要的日子，他們才是值得恭賀的人。

各位法律學院老師，感謝您們幫助我們裝備自己，為未來作出充分準備。您們教導我們要跳出框架思考，要明白法律問題沒有標準答案，它們總要「視情況而定」。的確，即便人生也在不斷變化。我們因此學會探索不同的方法解決問題；也認識到與別人不同並不等於我們有錯。還有各位行政人員，感謝您們為我們解決各種問題，例如重新安排課堂、交流申請等。

各位同窗、朋友，感謝有你們風雨同路。除了討論功課，我們亦共同經歷起起跌跌、搜尋喜愛的午餐地點、計畫如何收集法律招聘會上的紀念品。如今我們進入了新的人生階段，有的人成為了見習律師，有的人選擇不從事法律領域的工作。今後，我們或各奔前程、或攜手同行，但盼望有天我們會再相遇。

不管我們選擇了哪條路，我們會發現，人生並非完美無瑕。有時候，我們會在沒有指引、缺乏支持的情況下曲折前進。但無須擔心，因為失敗並不可怕，我們也可以看電視吃冰淇淋；我們要誠實面對自己，反思是否對自己滿意。對自己要有自信，把握下一個機會。每一次的失去，都使我們更珍惜所擁有的；每一次的打擊與跌倒，只會使我們更堅強不屈。我們會漸漸知道什麼人、什麼事值得我們珍惜並抓緊。

修讀法律的學生都很熟悉大法官曼斯菲爾德閣下的名言：「縱使天塌下來，仍要伸張正義。」儘管在現實中，正義並不總是能得到伸張，但我們仍要堅持信念。無論財富

多少、社會地位高低、即使文化背景或政治立場不同、做任何事情都不要為了妥協而犧牲自己的誠信。要堅持問心無愧、為法治發聲、謙虛學習、以及培養對真理的熱忱。

在專注於自己的時候，也不要忘了身邊的陪伴。我們常遇到讓人心碎的事件，尤其去年我們見到又或者經歷了因疾病、死亡、政治分歧等原因與家人親人的分離。不要吝嗇對他人的善意，並對你所擁有的一切心存感激。

我們迷茫過、徬徨過，但未來依然值得期待。願我們有乘風破浪的勇氣，也有感悟美好的能力，可輕裝上陣，亦可負重涉遠。望謹記：秉行公義，與人為善；勿忘初心，方得始終。

謹在此祝賀 2019 屆畢業同學，並祝各位前程似錦。

Sharing by 2019 Graduate

LEUNG Yen San     Bachelor of Laws

It is my great honour to speak to you on behalf of the Class of 2019 on this auspicious occasion, which was initially scheduled in December 2019. Finally, here we are. Graduation is about reflection, asking what we have gained from the course and what our future plans are. It is also about gratitude, thanking the dearest people we cherish.

Dear families, thank you for believing in our potential and teaching us to be the best person we can be. As an international student, I wholeheartedly thank my family for letting me go far from home to pursue my passion in this beautiful foreign land. Let us all applaud our dearest ones, who should be the ones receiving balloons and cards on this big day.

Dear School of Law, thank you for preparing us for this journey. We were taught to think out of the box, to accept that there are no definite answers to legal questions as they always “depend on circumstances”. Indeed, even life is subject to changes and interpretations. We have learnt to explore different methods to find our way and that being different from others does not mean we are wrong. Of course, dear administrative staff, thank you for dealing with our problems, from class rescheduling to exchange applications.

Dear classmates and friends, thank you for backing one another. We not only discussed assignments, but also shared our ups and downs, researched our favourite lunch spots, and made plans to collect law fair souvenirs. Now that we have moved on to a new stage of life, some are pupils and trainees, some have quit law, and there will be many more paths we might take outside of law. We may or may not choose to walk the same path, but hopefully someday we will meet down the road.

Regardless of the path chosen, we will realize life is not perfect. There are zigs and zags where we have to go on without lights and cheerleaders. But don't worry because it is okay to fail and be a couch potato eating ice cream. Be honest to yourself whether you are content. Have confidence in yourselves and seize the next opportunity. Every loss will make us more appreciative of the things we have, and every hit and fall will only make us more bulletproof. We will find out who and what is worth keeping, and we shall hold on to them tight.

Law students are very familiar with a maxim by Lord Mansfield: “Let justice be done though the heavens may fall.” Although we know in reality that justice is not always achieved, we have to keep trying, nonetheless. Regardless of our wealth, social, cultural or political status, whatever we do, do not compromise on our integrity. Keep our conscience clear, speak up when there is injustice, stay humble to learn, and train our passion for the truth.

While focusing on ourselves, do not forget the people around us. We often witness heart-breaking events, especially in the past year where we have seen or perhaps experienced separation from families and loved ones due to sickness, death, political differences or other reasons. Never hesitate to be kind to others, be grateful for what you can grab hold of and love when you can.

I will now continue my speech in Cantonese.

感謝畢業生的家人負重前行換來我們的歲月靜好、老師的循循善誘和細心栽培、朋友的一路相伴。願我們有乘風破浪的勇氣，也有感悟美好的能力，可輕裝上陣，亦可負重涉遠。不論你是否法律生，望謹記：秉行公義，與人為善；勿忘初心，方得始終。

柯愷欣      法律博士

今天是我們經過艱苦奮鬥終能修成正果的日子，我需不能代表所有應屆同學，但我確信許多人也有同感，我們為了能於 PCLL 取得一席之地而受壓，要於短短的學期完成那長長的閱讀清單貌似天方夜譚，但在同學們彼此支持下化作可能。儘管我們當中有許多人會開玩笑說要感謝 Google 和 Wikipedia，但實際是倚仗法學院的教學團隊及相關工作人員幫助始能成功。

致各位即將畢業的同學，我們當中有許多人終於都可以稱自己為準律師。儘管我們將面臨許多前所未有的挑戰，但我們的腦筋清晰，基礎固，必能邁步迎向未來。祝大家事事順利！

It is my great honour to speak to you on behalf of the Class of 2019 on this auspicious occasion, which was initially scheduled in December 2019. Finally, here we are. Graduation is about reflection, asking what we have gained from the course and what our future plans are. It is also about gratitude, thanking the dearest people we cherish. Today is the day that we all have been struggled so much to reach. I cannot speak for the whole 2019 Cohort, but I do know that many others have felt the same way. We stressed to earn ourselves a place in PCLL. The idea of finishing reading lists seemed impossible, or at least not within the semester time, but it became possible with support from my fellow classmates. While many of us would make jokes in thanking Google and Wikipedia, it is ultimately the many teachers and law school staff who have helped us get where we are today.

To everyone who is graduating, many of us could finally call ourselves lawyer-to-be. While we are facing many unprecedented challenges, we have brains in our heads, feet in our shoes, and can steer ourselves any direction we choose. I wish you every success in your future.

2020 畢業生分享

雷鈞霆      法律學學士

能代表 2020 年度法律學院的應屆畢業生致辭，實在是我莫大的榮幸。今天能夠說這一席話，背後其實有無數的「或者」、「湊巧」跟「如果」。或者在座畢業的同學有不少跟我一樣，選擇讀法律的時候其實還是一頭霧水，又湊巧碰上一群參選學生會的朋友，就這樣就糊裡糊塗的開始了四年的大學生活。回望過去，這四年我最意想不到的收穫大概就是知道了破曉在夏天和冬天長得挺不一樣、以及親身體驗了麥當勞的早餐時段剛開始確實是比較好吃。不過除了這些若有若無的感慨，究竟法律學院給予了我們甚麼？

我在這裡學會了甚麼是法治精神、知道了案例的重要性和最重要的技能：用 IRAC 結構寫文章。這樣聽好像沒甚麼大不了，但是大家又會否記得大學生活中的這些點點滴滴？可能是在一份又一份的考卷上嘗試不同的答題策略，上課的時候沒準備好案例卻被點名，以及看電視的時候忍不住提出的法律問題。而恰巧這些就正正反映了法律學院四年的學習重點：這裡的教育令我知道所學何物、以及其重量，發掘自己屬意那個範疇，然後讓我有能力做適合自己甚至社會的決策。這裡允許我學習、允許我犯錯、允許我嘗試，無論將來我選擇任何道路，這種精神和學習模式都令我受用匪淺。我相信，法律學院最重要的未必是這張文憑，而是培養出擁有獨立思維，肯嘗試跟樂於持續學習的大家。希望各位未來一切安好，亦再一次感謝城大，感謝法律學院！

LUI Kwan Ting Victor     Bachelor of Laws

It is my honor to be here today to deliver this speech on behalf of my fellow schoolmates. Many stars have to be aligned for me to be in this very occasion. I believe everyone shares a similar story: wandering into the School of Law of the City University of Hong Kong mindlessly with not even a single idea of how our future will unfold. Coincidentally bumping into a group of aspiring Student Union members, I took up the mantle of Council Chairperson of the Law Student's Society, where I took a step at a time. In retrospect, the most unexpected treasure at the end of this four-years' quest is that sunrise in summer looks different than that in winter; and the most unexpected fruit I reap throughout this fruitful four years, well, is probably the realization that the pancake set of McDonald tastes the best when the breakfast session just started. One may start to wonder, what exactly did we learn and take away from law school aside from these trivial understandings?

I learnt the spirit of the laws, the importance of precedents and most importantly, the IRAC method for writing papers. Insignificant as it seems, do you recall how do we pick up these bits and pieces? Perhaps it is the exam techniques; maybe it is the unprepared quiz or possibly the quick-witted everyday legal questions during family meetings. All of these are the reflections of what we learnt in the past four years. Knowing what the law is, what it stands for, why it matters and where my interest lies in the law. We studied. We made mistakes, and today here we are. In our not so distant yet not so certain future, one thing is certain. That the things we acquire in the School of Law be of assistance in the future. Be it logical thinking. Be it the continuous learning. Be it this certificate of graduation. Once again, thank you all and hope you all a safe and well journey into the unknown future.

2020 畢業生分享

陳卓輝      法律博士

在此，我僅代表 2020 年畢業的同學，過去這幾年確實是我們的人生轉捩點。我們來自不同的學系；專業和背景，能走在一起是因為我們都懷著一個共同的意願，就是要投身於法律這行業。從深夜埋首於一些似乎難以理解的法律課本，至在如今的疫情中，要透過虛擬方式去作討論，我們能夠堅持下去，是因為我們要追尋理想。我代表畢業同學，對教授及一眾教務人員，帶領著我們去追尋理想，致以衷心感謝。

對所有我的同學，我希望你們知道，你們是我所遇見最才華洋溢的人；能與你們共同努力，我深感榮幸；你們的投入、幹勁、和凡事務求做到最好的熱誠，確實值得表揚。請大家繼續努力，願在日後的人生路上，跟你們再次相遇。

CHAN Jeffrey Cheuk-fai      Juris Doctor

I believe I speak for all my peers in the 2020 cohort when I say that these last few years have marked a turning point in our lives. Though we all come from different academic and professional backgrounds, one aspect which ties us together is our collective desire to forge our paths in the legal industry. From late nights deciphering seemingly incomprehensible legal texts to heated virtual discussions in the midst of a global pandemic, we have endured our fair share of hardships for the sake of this dream. On behalf of the cohort, I would like to express our sincere gratitude to the professors and supporting staff at City University of Hong Kong for their guidance along the way.

To all my peers: you are among the most brilliant individuals I have ever met, and I am humbled to have had the opportunity to work alongside you all. Your dedication, drive, and commitment to excellence is truly admirable. Remain excellent, and may our paths cross again.

2020 畢業生分享

LAM Oliver Hiu Fung      法律博士

我想用這次機會衷心恭喜 2020 法律博士課程的畢業生以及感謝一直支持我們的所有老師，朋友以及家人。驀然回首，我意識到我們最大教訓的源自我們課程以及旅途中不同的困難。失敗讓我們成長，不僅僅作為有志向的未來律師，更作為人。每一次模擬法庭辯論失利，每一次不理想的考試，每一個課堂上答不好的問題都在時刻提醒我們是不完美的。如果這些經驗告訴了我們什麼，那一定是成為任何成功律師必要的條件並不是鐵齒銅牙，過目不忘，或者完美無缺的邏輯推論，而是讓我們停止懷疑和積極面對自身缺點的勇氣、樂觀、和開明。

LAM Oliver Hiu Fung      Juris Doctor

I wish to congratulate the Juris Doctor Class of 2020 and to thank the teachers, friends, and family members who have supported us over the years. Looking back, I realize that the greatest lessons we learned came from the many failures we encountered throughout the course of this transformative journey. Failures which allowed us to grow, not only as aspiring practitioners, but also as human beings. Every lost moot competition, every imperfect exam score, and every improperly answered tutorial question served as a constant reminder of how imperfect we are and always will be. If these experiences have shown us anything, it is that the most important trait for any great lawyer to possess comes not in the form of a silver tongue, photographic memory, or impeccable logic, but rather, the courage to silence our voices of self-doubt and to face our shortcomings with optimism and an open mind.
