Part II Course Details

Abstract

Base on the aesthetic and theoretical concepts (such as intention and expectation or meaning and truth) this course aims to introduce research methodologies and approaches to art history to critically study and analyze art pieces, architecture, and cultural artifacts. The course seeks to introduce to students how to formulate a significant research question, how to select the right research approaches, how to select their evidence, how to prove their claims with valid evidence, and how to present their findings logically. The course will prepare students for their final year projects.

Course Intended Learning Outcomes (CILOs)

CILOs		Weighting (if app.)	DEC-A1	DEC-A2	DEC-A3
1	Apply different theoretical concepts in analyzing paintings, objects, architecture, and cultural artifacts.	25	x	x
2	Formulate significant research questions and select the most appropriate methodologies for their studies.	25	x	x
3	Demonstrate their critical judgment of studying and analyzing researches by others.	25		x	x
4	Articulate valid evidence to support their claims.	25		x	x

A1: Attitude

Develop an attitude of discovery/innovation/creativity, as demonstrated by students possessing a strong sense of curiosity, asking questions actively, challenging assumptions or engaging in inquiry together with teachers.

A2: Ability

Develop the ability/skill needed to discover/innovate/create, as demonstrated by students possessing critical thinking skills to assess ideas, acquiring research skills, synthesizing knowledge across disciplines or applying academic knowledge to real-life problems.

A3: Accomplishments

Demonstrate accomplishment of discovery/innovation/creativity through producing /constructing creative works/new artefacts, effective solutions to real-life problems or new processes.

Learning and Teaching Activities (LTAs)

LTAs		Brief Description	CILO No.	Hours/week (if applicable)
1	Students will prepare weekly assigned readings and actively engage in course discussions regarding the authors' arguments and their reflections on these arguments.	Book chapters and articles related to the topic(s) of each course session	1, 2, 3, 4
2	Students will attend the course lectures and the teacher-facilitated analysis and discussion.	Theories and concepts of arts and aesthetic criticism, synthesis of readings, case studies	1, 2, 3, 4

3	Students will attend the guided field trips or museum visits and engage actively in critical discussion in front of the artworks and architecture.	Guided visits to museums or art markets; report on these visits	1, 2, 3, 4

Assessment Tasks / Activities (ATs)

ATs		CILO No.	Weighting (%)	Remarks (e.g. Parameter for GenAI use)
1	Attendance in In-class and Canvas Discussions: Students are expected to participate actively in in-class discussions and other course-related activities.	1, 2, 3, 4	10
2	Book Review: Students will write short reports and review a recent publication in the field of East Asian Art History. The review should be presented in both written form (approximately 800 words) and orally (approximately 5 minutes). Students will summarize the main content of the selected publication and critically discuss the author's viewpoint(s).	1, 2, 3, 4	30
3	Oral Presentation: Students will participate in group or individual presentations, explaining and critically analyzing any concepts introduced in the course. They will also apply the chosen concepts to other cultural artworks and heritage artifacts. These presentations are conducted under the guidance of the course instructor and will serve as preparation for the final written assignment.	1, 2, 3, 4	20

4	Final Paper: In consultation with the course instructor, students will write a final written assignment on selected objects. There is no word limit, but students should write sufficiently to thoroughly discuss their topic, present their ideas logically, and develop a coherent argument.	1, 2, 3, 4	40
